

A Lost Art?

Only if we let it. Come in and
Learn how we make Lace today.
Keeping the Traditions Alive!

Our Goal is to promote interest in fine old laces and preserve them for posterity. One way we achieve this goal is to learn the art of lace making. We welcome any one who is interested in making or collecting lace (of any kind) to join the Heartland Lace Guild. We encouraged members to help us keep this art alive by demonstrating their lace making skills.
